ORDER:

Sri G.Venugopal Reddy was appointed as ACTO through Direct Recruitment and joined in the CT Dept. as ACTO on 30.10.2007 and he has passed the last departmental test i.e. LF Audit Paper.IV in November, 2010 session and the results were published on 22.11.2011, beyond three years of probation period. Accordingly, in G.O 2nd read above, orders were issued stating that his probation would be deemed to have commenced on 29.01.2009.

2. In his representations in the reference 3rd read above, Sri G.Venugopal Reddy, ACTO, has stated that he has to pass all the departmental tests by 29.10.2010 for declaration of probation within normal period and he has passed last departmental test on 22.11.2011 due to delay in conducting the departmental tests by the APPSC, technically the delay in passing the last departmental test is 3 months only, and therefore, requested the Govt. to declare his probation w.e.f. date of joining i.e. 30.10.2007 under relaxation of Rule 16(h) of APS & SS Rules, 1996.

3. The CCT in his letter, Dated.20.01.2012, among others has informed that the APPSC has not conducted two sessions of Departmental exams in the year 2008 i.e., May'2008, and Nov'2008 but conducted May'2009 session together with May'2008 and Nov'2008 sessions. Hence, they have lost two session's of Departmental exams. However, Sri G.Venugopal Reddy, DR ACTO has passed departmental tests within six chances i.e. by November, 2010 session. Thus the delay in passing the required departmental tests is not attributable to the individual. He has requested the Govt. to issue appropriate orders for declaration of probation of the individual under relaxation of rule 16(h) of the APS & SS Rules, 1996.

4. Government after careful examination, consider that the APPSC has issued notification in the month of May, 2011(instead of July, 2010), the departmental exam was conducted in the month of July, 2011(instead of Nov, 2010) and results were published in the month of November, 2011(instead of January, 2011). Had the departmental test for July, 2010 session been conducted in time and the results published on time i.e. last Thursday of January, 2011, the individual would have passed the regular departmental exam within three years from the date of joining as ACTO. The delay in passing the last departmental test due to conducting of departmental tests by APPSC, cannot be attributed to the individual.
